

FLIRT-1

Football League Involving Radiation Therapists – 1

September 15, 2010, Barcelona

Tournament Structure

4 teams: Spain, Clinicians + RB, Physicists and RTTs.

15 players for each team.

The tournament will be composed of 2 semi-finals and the 2 finals matches.

Each match will last 15', overall 4 matches will be played

Rules of international football except where specified.

Organization

- The Chairperson of each Scientific Ctt will appoint a coach for their respective team.
- Players can register by sending an email to A. Barrasso who will then forward the list of players to the respective coaches.
- ESTRO President and the Chair of the Local Committee will appoint an ESTRO FLIRT Committee (EFC) and his Chair. Members of the EFC will be: the Chair, 2 members of ESTRO Board, 2 members of Local Committee, 2 members identified by the Chair of EFC and the ESTRO CEO.
- The commitments of EFC are: to validate the teams according the above mentioned criteria, to keep the contact with the coaches of each teams, to define any rules needed for the accomplishment of the tournament, to guarantee the respect of the available budget.
- ESTRO has to define the budget for the tournament (including insurances for the players and referee) and the staff dedicated to administrative and advertisement needs.

Match Schedule

- The draw will take place in the during the Opening Ceremony of the congress according to the following scheme:

1° EXTRACTED	FINAL 3 rd /4 th place
3° EXTRACTED
2° EXTRACTED	FINAL 1 st /2 nd place
4° EXTRACTED

- Prize-giving will take place on the field immediately at the end of the final match.
- Medals for winner and a keepsake for all participants

Tournament rules

Each match will last 15'.

Each team will be formed by 15 players (men and women allowed), one coach and the referent for administrative and logistic organization; at least 5 players will have to be over 40 year old.

ESTRO will prepare t-shirts for each team.

Rules are of international football except for:

- No limits in substitutions are allowed without any interruption of the game.
- In case of draw at the end of the match 3 penalty kicks will take place. In case of draw after the penalties other penalties will take place until one team will win.
- Each team must have at least two over 40 players playing in each moment of the matches
- For yellow and red cards International football rules will apply